

Humanities August Buy-Back PD Opportunities: K-5 Elementary Teachers

Diving Deeper with SFUSD's Comprehensive Approach to Literacy August 16 or 17

9:00 – 11:30am or 12:30 – 3:00pm

Location: TBD

This PD is only open to sites that will attend as a whole school*.

Registration will begin Monday, May 22 at www.sfusdhumanities.org.

Space is limited and will be allotted on a rolling basis.

Only principals can register their schools to attend; individual teachers may not sign up.

Note to Principals: The registration form will ask how many teachers to enroll in each session.
You may want to poll your teachers prior to submitting the form.

 Special Education teachers attending the SPED PD on 8/17 do not need to attend with their school.*

Sessions Offered:

- Small Group Instruction in the Reading Workshop
- Getting Started Using the Reading “Units of Study” in Alignment w/SFUSD's Core Curriculum
- Demystifying Book Clubs: Nuts, Bolts & Tools for Coaching Robust, Text-Based Conversations
- Recording Student Thinking & Growing Ideas in Reading Workshop (Grades 2-5 only)
- Launching Reading Workshop and Launching Writing Workshop
- Getting Started Using SFUSD's Interdisciplinary Curriculum Maps & Mega Unit Plans

Using Student Data to Inform Instruction: Humanities Online Learning Link

Participants will...

- examine student data at the district and site levels
- discuss holistic and analytic findings
- identify specific content and/or skills to be addressed to support all students to succeed

The Online Learning Link is site-facilitated – materials will be provided to principals at the Administrators' Institute and posted on www.sfusdhumanities.org in July.
